

NO GOODS CHARGED.

NO APPROVALS.

This Sale Goes Merrily on: $18.00 Will Buy any Seasonable Suit or Overcoat Worth up to $35.00.

Saturday's suit sales broke all previous records.

More than TWICE as many suits were sold than ever before in ONE DAY of a sale.

If you will come here and look around a bit, you can readily learn why the sales were unusually large. $18 in JANUARY, for any suit, overcoat or raincoat worth up to $35, is an extraordinary offer.

It ought to sell every garment in our store in a week's time and we believe it will.

Understand this sale includes blacks, (but not full dress clothes.)

This sale is the result of our determination not to carry over any garments to next season.

Stout Men Have a Snap!

They can take as big a part in this sale as regular size fellows; because there's plenty stouts here. 36 to 48 chest sizes. Good business suit colors and fabrics, as well as blacks.

In addition to this special $18 SALE of suits and overcoats, over 25 per cent. discount sale on men's trousers and boys' clothes is still going on.

KENTUCKY NEIGHBORS.

A Mr. Garra, who was shot by one Middleton, died last Saturday in Elliott county.

Charles Worthington, of Greenup, has been pardoned from the California penitentiary.

Mrs. Mary Ferrell was tried at Williamson last week for burning her house and was acquitted. The burning was at Matewan a few months ago.

Green Charles, of Zebulon, and Madison Bevins, of Meta, two of Pike county's most highly respected and venerable pioneer citizens, passed to the Great Beyond within the past week.

Miss Judith Davidson, of Prestonsburg, the former popular County Clerk, had a fall, on one of the recent slippery mornings, whereby she was painfully hurt, and from which it will take some time to recover.

Link Castle, who seriously stabbed Clayton Webb, at the mouth of Muddy Branch, Johnson county, on Christmas eve, has been arrested and is now in jail awaiting the action of the next grand jury.

The suit of Ernest Jordan, etc., vs. the W. M. Riser Lumber Co., in the Pike Circuit Court, resulted in a verdict of $5,000 for plaintiff. This was a personal injury suit, in which a 14-year-old boy had his foot badly lacerated in a planing mill.

Mrs. Martha Cline, the venerable mother of J. Siak and Allen Cline, of Pikeville, had the misfortune to fall a few days ago, and in so doing, sustained a fracture of one of her limbs, which, owing to her age, is likely to be some length of time healing.

While crossing a creek near Logan G. H. Caldwell, aged 62, superintendent of the Dingers Run Coal Co., sustained a paralytic stroke and was nearly drowned before being rescued. He never regained consciousness and died late the same night.

Ed Melvin, the young man from Paintsville, who was run down by a Chesapeake & Ohio engine on Thursday evening of last week, in Catlettsburg, has answered the final call, having passed to the great beyond shortly after twelve o'clock on Monday last. The body was taken to Paintsville for interment.

James Curry, a well known laboring man of Williamson, was killed last week on the track nearly opposite the Williamson Coal & Coke Co.'s store, by the shifter engine. Curry was employed by the railroad, and was working on the section at the time. He did the thing that has caused so many deaths on the tracks in this country—stepped off one track to avoid an incoming freight, and was run down by the shifter which he did not see approaching.

An armed guard was placed around the Cabell county jail to prevent the liberation by friends of the six prisoners held there on suspicion of being implicated in the burning of the Lincoln county court house and jail. Adjutant General Elliott issued instructions to the three local companies of the state militia to be in readiness to respond to a call.

Since the coming of John Smith to Jamestown, "John" has been both a hustler and popular. "John" is everywhere. For instance, five John's are on the directorate of the Paintsville National Bank—John Mayo, John Kelley, John Smith, John Buckingham and John Preston—all representative business men, but it rarely ever occurs that so many men bearing the same christian name are associated.

Green Patrick, of Salyersville, was taken to Cincinnati last week for medical treatment, but after an examination he was found to be suffering from softening of the brain and was pronounced incurable. He was returned to his home and it is the opinion of his physicians he can not live long. He was taken to Cincinnati by his brother, Sam Patrick, and Dr. G. V. Daniel.—Paintsville Herald.

As a result of a runaway at the Paintsville depot Friday morning a man named Hall, residing in Magoffin county, is a heavy loser. Hall had gone to the depot for freight and left his team standing near the railroad track. A train came along and the team got frightened and started in a dead run in the direction of the Flat Rock. At the railroad "Y" the team left the main road and followed the old county road to Paint creek. They plunged into the stream which was full of floating ice and soon drowned. The wagon and harness were recovered. The horses were valued at $300.—Paintsville Herald.

Moreland, Ky., Jan. 23.—Martin Russell, aged 81, one of Moreland's oldest citizens, died early this morning. He was a great relic hunter, and among his trophies was an old rifle once owned by Daniel Boone. This place was a favorite spot of Daniel Boone, and the old citizens around and near here take pride in that fact.

James McGuire, who has been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Phipps, was found dead in his bed last Monday morning. He was close to 90 years of age, and had been in very bad health for several months.—Morgan County News.

On Monday, January 17, Mat Bevins died at his home near Pikeville.

LOAR & BURKE, LOUISA, KENTUCKY.

One of Wisconsin's Mothers Who Always Keeps Per-na in the House.

Mrs. Alvina Piamann.

"I am now able to do my housework again, and have a good appetite. I have used thirteen bottles of Peruna and one of Manalio. My husband and children are also in good health. We always keep Peruna in the house. I thank you a thousand times for your advice."—Mrs. Alvina Piamann, 1914 Walnut St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

If any one really wanted to find out whether or not Peruna is good for the baby who would he naturally ask? Some one who never used Peruna? Some one who is prejudiced against Peruna? Some one actuated by selfish motives who is opposing Peruna for the sake of the notoriety?

Would any sane person who really wanted to know about Peruna ask any of these people? Of course not.

Who would they ask? They would ask mothers who have raised babies and used Peruna for their babies times without number. They would ask the parents who love their families, and know more about Peruna than all the professional writers in the world.

Above we give the portrait and testimonial of one of the mothers who has used Peruna, and who has raised healthy and happy babies. We have many more such mothers in every state in the Union. These mothers give their testimonials entirely unsolicited, without pay or expectation of pay. Their only desire is to point out to other mothers a useful and reliable family medicine.

Ask Your Druggist for a FREE Peruna Almanac for 1916.

as a result of an attack of fever. He was an old man, having passed his 75th year. Seven children survive him, three of whom reside in the State of Washington, and two of them in Williamson—Mrs. Elizabeth Chaffin and Z. M. Bevins, an employee of the N. & W. Mr. Bevins was well known and highly respected throughout the region, and he will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Herbert Davis, of Buffalo creek, was arrested and lodged in jail last week, on a warrant charging him with forgery. Davis is of tender age but is fast establishing a reputation. Last year he was sent to the State Reform School from Pike county for breaking into a store. He escaped a few months ago, since which time he has been "knocking about."—Paintsville Herald.

Taylor Lawson, Sheriff of Greenup county, is sick with pneumonia and his recovery is not expected.

Don't for a minute think that winter is over. It's only half gone, and you will want a good overcoat. You'll find it at reduced price at Loar & Burke's.
